Route description

On this track you will see the north part of the city of Požega and Cross Country track Stari Fenjeri Turnić.

On this path we start from the Holy Trinity Square and we pass by the 123rd Brigade Barracks. Close to the company for ecological production Grbić d.o.o. we turn right and we drive towards Cross Country track. Restaurant Stari fenjeri is located close to the beginning of village Turnić, and it is located in the beautiful landscape of the forest, pond and meadow. On this place is the start of the bicycle race. The track has circular shape with length of 4000 meters. It is used in last several years for international cycling races that score for the world-class list of mountain bikers. With this route, we would like to introduce you with the sport of mountain bike riding and to give you the opportunity to drive on the track on which many world mountain bikers have been driving.
