You have come to the old baroque town of Požega. In the heart of Slavonia, at the altitude of 152 meters, there is the county center Požega.

In last 3 centuries, inhabitants of Požega celebrate 12th of March 1688., when frior Luka Ibrišimović liberated Požega from 150 years old Turkish occupation. On that day people shoot out of the cannons on the hill of Sokolovac, historic guards and city guards from all over Croatia and abroad march in the streets of Požega, and on the hills people complete atmosphere with a glass of good wine from Požega winemakers.

Taste our Požega with the wine and the delicacies of the Požega for Grgurevo, also mark the battle with the cannonballs.

Be a part of the celebration of this date, be a part of Grgurevo in Požega.
