Route description

You have come to the old baroque town Požega. At the heart of Slavonia at an altitude of 152 meters, there is a county seat town of Požega.

Požega has a long history and culture that goes back to the Middle Ages (13th century), and thus becomes interesting to travelers and tourists.

Požega has retained its medieval street layout, with dominant medieval square emerged in the intersection of four access directions (the largest medieval square in Croatia), located close to the northern slopes of Požeška mount. North of the square to the former Stone Gate (demolished in the 19th century) led three characteristic mutually parallel streets of which are still central (Cehovska – Svetog Florijana), western (Županijska) and part of the east along square Trg svete Terezije.

With this trip you want to experience the beauty of the town, with its medieval streets and squares, as well as a new part of the city and its environs.

By cycling, you will have the opportunity to visit cultural attractions of our city. You will learn about the history, culture and sights of this city.

With City Bike Tour you can have sightseeing in a horse-drawn carriage. The easy ride will bring you all the beauty of this medieval city in a new way.
